Mission Haiti Initiative – A Joint Program of the U.S. and Canadian Federations of the Sisters of St. Joseph

<http://sistersofsaintjosephfederation.org/node/139>

Soon after the earthquake hit Haiti in January of 2010, Griselda Martinez Morales, the Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) representative for the Federation of the Congregations of St. Joseph sent a request to various sisters involved in justice work in the global Joseph family asking how we might respond to the tragedy in Haiti. The justice coordinators in the US and Canadian Federations expressed interest in this request and over the last two years have collaborated in designing a response.
